LUMP SUM DEATH GRANT NOMINATION FORM

This form allows you to nominate who you wish to receive a lump sum death grant if you die in service.

What is the Lump Sum Death Grant?

If you die whilst an active member of the PPS 1987, PPS 2006 or PPS 2015, your 'survivor's may be eligible to receive a Lump Sum Death Grant regardless of whether or not any Adult Survivor's pension is payable.

For members of the PPS 1987 this death grant is normal equal to two times your annual pensionable pay at the time of death. Similarly, members of the PPS 2006 and PPS 2015, this death grant is normal equal to three times your annual pensionable pay at the time of death.

Who can nominate a beneficiary to receive the Lump Sum Death Grant?

This form applies only to members of the PPS 2006 and PPS 2015. There is no facility within the PPS 1987 to nominate anyone to receive a lump sum death grant.

If you die in service, the grant will be paid to your surviving spouse or civil partner (if you have one) or otherwise to your personal representative (normally your estate).

You may nominate anyone you like, including an organisation. You may also nominate as many people or organisations as you like. If you nominate more than one person or organisation, please indicate what proportion of the grant (either a percentage or a fraction) you would like each to receive. If you do not give a proportion, we will divide the grant equally between the people or organisations you have named.

The form asks you to state any nominated person's relationship to you. You do not have to give this if you do not wish to, but it will help us deal sensitively with matters if you die.

You may wish to consider changing your nomination if your personal circumstances change. It is your responsibility to keep it up to date, including the address of anyone you have nominated.

WARNING

Important information

A nomination will not be effective if at the time of your death you leave a surviving spouse, civil partner or unmarried partner who is entitled to benefits under scheme regulations. In these circumstances, the grant will be paid to that person (refer to either the PPS 2006 or PPS 2015 Members' Guide as applicable for more information about the lump sum death grant and about survivor benefits in general).

Your nomination is not binding on the police authority. If for any reason we do not pay the grant to the person you have named, we will pay it to your personal representative.
